Review Engagement Report

I have reviewed the statement of financial position of Gabriola Arts Council as at June 30, 2014, and the statements of operations, changes in net assets and cash flows for the year then ended. My review was made in accordance with generally accepted standards for review engagements and, accordingly, consisted primarily of enquiry, analytical procedures and discussion related to information supplied to me by the society.

A review does not constitute an audit and, consequently, I do not express an audit opinion on these financial statements.

Based on my review, nothing has come to my attention that causes me to believe that these financial statements are not, in all material aspects, in accordance with Canadian accounting standards for not-for-profit organizations.

Gabriola Arts Council
Notes to the Financial Statements
For the Year Ended June 30, 2014
(Unaudited)

1. Significant Accounting Policies

a. Nature of Business

The Gabriola Arts Council is an organization that provides administration and funding support to local visual and performance artists, musicians and writers. The Council was incorporated under the Societies Act of British Columbia as a not-for-profit organization on April 15, 1997, and is a registered charity under the Income Tax Act.

b. Other Accounting Policies

i. Basis of Accounting

The Gabriola Arts Council prepares its financial statements in accordance with Canadian accounting standards for not-for-profit organizations.

ii. Other Accounting Policies

Contributed capital assets are recorded at fair value.

Contributed material and services are not recorded in the financial statements

Pledges receivable are recorded when received.

iii. Capital Assets

Capital assets are recorded at cost. Amortization is provided annually at rates calculated to write off the assets over their estimated useful lives as follows:

Computer equipment	30% straight line
--------------------	-------------------

Additions during the year are amortized at one-half their normal rate and no amortization is taken in the year of disposition.

iv. Other Revenue Recognition Points

Membership fees are recognized over the membership period.

Unrestricted contributions are recognized as revenue when received or receivable if the amount to be received can be reasonably estimated and collection is reasonably assured.

Revenue from activities and events is recognized when the activity or event occurs.

The cut-off date for donations is the same as the cut-off date for receipts issued in a year, and is based on the postage date on the envelope for mail, or the date the donation is received.

Legacies or bequests are recorded when received.

v. Use of Estimates

When preparing financial statements according to Canadian accounting standards for not-for-profit organizations, the Council makes estimates and assumptions. Management's assumptions are based on a number of factors, including historical experience, current events and actions that the organization may undertake in the future, and other assumptions that we believe are reasonable under the circumstances. Actual results could differ from those estimates under different conditions and assumptions. Estimates were used when accounting for certain items, such as the useful lives of capital assets and impairment of long-lived assets .

2. Capital Assets

			2014	2013
	Cost	Accumulated Amortization	Net Book Value	Net Book Value
Computer	$ 2,705	$ 2,705	$ -	$ 479
	$ 2,705	$ 2,705	$ -	$ 479

3. Financial Instruments

The Association's financial instruments consist of cash, accounts receivables and accounts payable. Unless otherwise noted, it is management's opinion that the Association is not exposed to significant interest, currency or credit risk arising from these financial instruments. The fair value of the instruments approximates their carrying values, unless otherwise stated.

4. Comparative Figures

Certain prior year's figures have been reclassified for comparative purposes to conform with current year presentation.
